M. M. WOODS URGED BY MANY SALT LAKE MERCHANT DECRIES MEAT MARKET SEEMS TO BE AT FOR THE POSITION.

Urge M. M. Woods For Place.

Many citizens have urged the members of the commission to appoint Captain M. M. Woods, formerly of the Salvation Army, but now superintendent of the Salt Lake Charity association, as judge of the court, and in the event of not giving him the judgeship to make him probationary officer. But Captain Woods is not a candiate for either the judgeship or the position of probationary officer, and it is doubtful if he could be induced to serve in either capacity as his time is practically all taken up with his present duties. all taken up with his present duties,

Says Merchants Are Timid.

Referring to this matter yesterday, the head of one firm which has a representative in the district, said:
"The whole trouble with Salt Lake merchants is that they are timid. I'll admit that there is such a necessity as conservatism in business, but I do not believe that a business house should always be conservative. There should always be conservative. There is such a thing as overdoing it, and that is the trouble in this city. Now, I am as conservative as most business men, but I think I know a good thing when I see it, and I think this Gold-field project is a good one. Goldfield, to my mind, is going to have a great future, not today or tomorrow, but by degrees. I always look askance at sud-den beoms and am wary of them but den booms and am wary of them, but Goldfield appears to maintain the sound predictions made concerning it when it was first discovered, and for that it was first discovered, and for that reason I believe it will have a firm, steady growth, and the towns out there will continue to flourish long after I have passed away. For that reason I believe, much as do many eastern merchants, that if you want business you must go after it. You won't always find people coming into your store to trade of their own volition. You must go out and show them the goods and convince them that you
